Update from this week

We would like to wish you all a happy new year and hope you had a relaxing break with family and friends.

What a chilly start to the week. Fortunately, everything has been in full working order in school and we have been able to open all four days this week. Staff were in school on Monday for first aid training. We cleared the access paths of a lot of snow on Monday, which gave us a great head start before school opened to children on Tuesday. The weather has caused challenges throughout the week and we haven't always been able to take the children outside due to the icy conditions and very low temperatures. Mr Ruler has been poorly this week so I've been carrying out daily site walks to check the school site. Hopefully we've seen the back of the snow and temperatures will improve next week.

Whole school text- My Most Exciting Eid

We always start each term with a shared whole school text. This term we are using My Most Exciting Eid, by Zeba Talkhani and Abeeha Tariq, as a stimulus for our work.

Learning about different world religions, customs and traditions gives particular opportunities to promote an ethos of respect for others, challenge stereotypes and build understanding of other cultures and beliefs. This contributes to promoting a positive and inclusive school ethos that champions democratic values and human rights.

The children have been really engaged by the text and the activities they have completed. It has been great to walk around school to see so much wonderful learning in each classroom, including drawing and painting, learning about different traditions and customs, other craft activities and even making biscuits.

Golden ticket lunch on Thursday 15 January

We will be serving our spring term census lunch on Thursday 15 January. Children will have chicken goujons served with chips and baked beans followed by iced cake and custard. This meal is usually served on a Friday. For next week only, we are swapping the meals on Thursday and Friday- please see below in red text. As always, the meals will be prepared and cooked on site by Mrs Rogage.

Golden tickets will be hidden underneath the plates. One child in every class will win a special prize if they find a golden ticket under their plate.

Spring term school visits
